MONDAY EVENING, APRIL 7.

Pios as Charms.-Little pigs in cold and silver are now wern by everybody in Vienna as jewelry. Pies, charms, bracelets, stick handles -everything is for the moment porcine. The court began, and the rest of the world naturally followed the lead. The fashion has come from Germany, and was introduced to commemorate the happy escape of the Emperor William from all the risks and dangers he has lately run, and his "Schweits' gluck," or pigs' lnok-meaning splendid luck-as the German phrase goes, in coming out of it all so well. N. Y. Sun.

A GENTLEMAN addresses another gentleman, whom he doesn't know, at a party: "This affair is awfully siupid; let's go out and take a drick" "I would like to do it," was the reply, "but I can't leave very well." "Why not?" "Why, you see, I am the one who is giving the party."—Cincinnati Saturday Night.
